Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Dan Moran has shared his achievements in the field of sports, particularly as a basketball coach, and provided joy to all those who were honored to play for him; and,

Whereas, Dan has touched many lives by sharing his coaching talents and contributing to the communities where he has lived; and,

Whereas, Dan coached varsity boys basketball for over 30 years, most notably spending 16 years as head coach of the Stickney Raiders, leading them to the Class B state tournament five times, and winning the 1981 Class B boys basketball title; and,

Whereas, Dan had an overall record of 458 wins and 198 losses for his career; and,

Whereas, Dan was inducted into the National High School Athletic Coaches Association Hall of Fame for his significant coaching achievements; and,

Whereas, Dan and his wife, Trudy, have through 58 years of marriage, attended many sporting events with their four children and their spouses, their eight grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 13, 2016, as in South Dakota.

DAN MORAN DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-eighth Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Sixteen.

Dennis Daugaard

Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Shantel Krebs

Shantel Krebs, Secretary of State